YOUR PARTNER IN FOOD PRODUCTION.

Here at Millbrook Foods, we have a long-established reputation for premium quality products and excellence of service. In an ever-evolving food world, we pride ourselves on our ability to react quickly to market trends and to our customers' needs. Through supplying some of Ireland's largest food manufacturers we have sourced and established a range of products aimed directly at food manufacturers and producers, and this is continually being updated with the introduction of innovative new products and ideas. With a supply chain that includes many of Europe's largest food producers, and a product portfolio that ranges from Ambient to Frozen to Edible Oils, we are confident you will find many products which will benefit your business.

Bulk Oil System

In 2019, we augmented our bulk oil delivery operation with the arrival of a new intermediate size tanker to cater for the smaller user, or to allow access to those customers where space is limited. Coupled with our 30,000 litre vehicle we can now provide a bulk delivery service to all customers, big and small, with a range of custom built tanks available in various sizes to suit all requirements.

As part of our commitment to sustainable practices we work with a number of oil collection and recycling partners to provide your business with a 360° sustainable oil solution.
